

MOUNT ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY
COVID-19 VACCINATION RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION REQUEST FORM

As a safety initiative, Mount St. Mary's University has a policy requiring a COVID-19 vaccination for the 2021-2022 academic year. Mount St. Mary's University promotes diversity and an inclusive community for all students. An exemption from receiving the COVID-19 vaccination may be permitted for certain reasons associated with sincerely held religious beliefs. If your sincerely held religious beliefs or practices conflict with the COVID-19 vaccination requirement, please provide the following information:

Student Name:

Date of Request:

Please describe the religion or religious doctrine or practice that is contrary to receiving the COVID-19 Vaccination. Supporting letters from clergy may be attached.

In some cases, Mount St. Mary's University will need to obtain additional information and/or documentation about your religious practice(s) or belief(s). We may need to discuss the nature of your religious belief(s), practice(s) and accommodation with your religion's spiritual leader (if applicable) or others who can verify your religious beliefs and practices.

If requested, can you provide supporting documentation and/or third-party verifications of your belief(s) and the request for exemption? (Please select the appropriate response below.)
