Think you don’t need a will or living will?
If you’re like most people, you don’t like thinking about planning for your death. However, there are many good reasons why it’s very important to have a will no matter what your personal circumstances might be. For example, to have a say in your healthcare treatment if you’re not able to speak for yourself, to assign guardianship for minor children, and to secure your assets.

Think you don’t have enough assets to need a will?
Nearly one in four (24%) of American adults say their biggest reason for not having a will is a lack of sufficient assets. Not having a will puts your family in the position of having to guess about how to manage your personal and financial assets after your death.
