

MARSHALL FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

for employees of Mount St. Mary's University

The Marshall Family Scholarship awards $1000 per year for four years ($4000 total) to new students enrolling at Mother Seton School with at least one parent employed by Mount St. Mary's University.

The scholarship is based on both merit and financial need. First preference will be given to new families and children of faculty.

How to Apply

- Complete & submit FACTS Grant & Aid Application with required documentation.
www.factstuitionaid.com
- Submit a letter to the principal requesting consideration, stating student's relationship to The Mount and family need.
principal@mothersetonschool.org

Robert T. & Ann Hall Marshall sent ten children to Mother Seton School from 1957-1977.

Robert started working at Mount St. Mary's College in 1949, retiring in 1985. He taught Ancient History, Greek, Latin, and Linguistics. He was Chairman of the Classical Language Department and the Language Department. He earned his PhD from Catholic University and did post-doctoral work in Linguistics at Columbia University.

ABOUT MOTHER SETON SCHOOL

Mother Seton School is an independent Catholic Pre-K - Grade 8 school, where tradition meets innovation in the classroom. Our curriculum emphasizes critical thinking skills, promotes creativity, and instills a strong, moral foundation to prepare our students for success. Certified as a Maryland Green School, our 14-acre campus encourages exploration and environmental stewardship. Sponsored by the Daughters of Charity and approved by the Archdiocese of Baltimore.

learn more at www.mothersetonschool.org